

Strong Girls. Strong Women. Better World.

WELCOME TO THE WOMEN'S WILDERNESS INSTITUTE!

We're glad you're interested in a Girls' Course. We hope that filling out this application will be the first step of a fun and exciting adventure for you.

Enclosed you will find more information about the course you are interested in, and the following forms to fill out and return to us:

- Registration Form

This form contains basic information about you and your parents as well as necessary insurance information. It is important that both you and your parents fill this form out. You can also fill out this form online or make a payment at www.girlswilderness.org

- Questionnaire

Your answers to these questions will help us get a sense of the particular group that is forming for a course so we can plan accordingly.

- Medical Form

It is very important that you and your parents fill this out honestly and completely. Lots of medical conditions are very manageable in the backcountry, but for your safety it is important for staff to know your medical issues.

- Assumption of Risk Form

We have a strong commitment to making safety a top priority, but it is important that you and your parents read this carefully so that you understand the risk inherent in wilderness adventures. Please call us if you have questions.

- "I Understand"

It is important that you have a commitment to complete the course, so we want to make sure you understand the true adventure involved in a wilderness expedition.

- Physician Medical Form

The State of Colorado requires organizations that do programs for youth under the age of 18 to have a form signed by a physician or nurse practitioner that attests to each participant's physical health and capability of safely engaging in strenuous physical activity. You can send this form later, as long as we receive it one month before your course.

We are also required to keep an immunization record of all participants on file. Your school should already have a copy of this on file. Please ask your school nurse to make a copy for you, and then send that in to us.

Courses are filled on a first-come, first served basis, so return your application as soon as possible. We can reserve your space on a course once we have received all the items in this packet, fully completed, and a $60 deposit or full payment. Please refer to the registration form for more details about payment. As soon as your application is accepted, we'll send you more information about what to bring, how to get ready for your course, and when your pre-trip meeting will be.

Lots of questions can come up when you're preparing for this kind of adventure, so you're welcome to call us at 303-938-9191 with questions or concerns. We're also happy to set up a time with you to stop by the office to meet us, or to check out the video about the Girls' Wilderness Program.

See you soon!

Strong Girls. Strong Women. Better World.

Dear Parent,

For your daughter, going off on a wilderness adventure can be a major milestone in her process of growing up. And for a parent, letting her go off to have this kind of experience can be a significant event as well. You probably have questions and concerns about your daughter's well being. I welcome you to call us with any questions or concerns you may have, or if there is anything you would like to share with us about your daughter.

Parents are encouraged to come to the parent meeting, held during the last half hour of the pre-trip meeting that is held the evening before each course. At this meeting we'll go over how to help your daughter prepare for her course, answer last minute questions, and give you logistical information about the trip. You are also welcome to attend an informational meeting and slide show along with your daughter. These will be scheduled March-May. Please call us for specific times.

Some things you may want to know about the Girls' Wilderness Program:

- Our safety policies are patterned after standards set by the leading organizations in the field of adventure education. All field staff are currently certified as Wilderness First Responders- an intensive 80- hour first aid certification designed for the backcountry environment. As we enter our 10th season of girls' programs, over 500 girls have completed a course, with no significant safety incidents.
- As Program Director, I bring 15 years of experience in wilderness programming, and I hire and train all field staff. Our field staff are skilled outdoorswomen with prior experience guiding groups in the wilderness. Two adult women will accompany each group of 8 to 10 girls.
- The Girls' Wilderness Program is not "wilderness therapy". This program is designed to provide confidence-building experiences for all girls. We do not use punitive disciplinary strategies or confrontational approaches. Although we expect the course to have a significant impact on participants' confidence, personal strength, and relationships, our intention is not to "treat" behavioral or psychological problems. At the same time, our field staff are prepared to skillfully handle the issues that adolescent girls frequently face.

We are excited about this opportunity we are able to offer your daughter, and want to include your input and questions during this preparation period. Please feel free to call us if you have any questions!

Sincerely,

Jody Radtke
Program Director

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF RISKS & RELEASE AND INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

For youth participants and their parent/s

PLEASE READ THIS ENTIRE DOCUMENT (hereafter "Document") CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING. The participating child (referred to in this Document as 'participant' or 'child') must sign this Document. One or both of participant's Parent/s or Legal Guardian (collectively referred to in this Document as "parent/s") must also sign, whether the participant is an adult or minor (minors are those under 18 yrs. of age in Colorado). The term "we" refers to both the participant and her parent/s. In consideration of the services of The Women's Wilderness Institute, Inc., and its officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, volunteers, independent contractors and all other persons or entities associated with it (collectively referred to in this Document as "TWWI"), we agree as follows:

The Women's Wilderness Institute contracts with individuals or organizations that are independent contractors (not their employees or agents) to provide some of the services, and to conduct some of the activities participants may engage in. Although the Institute has made efforts to locate responsible contractors, it does not supervise or control these contractors and is not legally liable or responsible for their conduct. In addition, activities may take place at facilities or on premises not owned by, or associated or affiliated with, the Institute. The Institute does not oversee, supervise, or take responsibility for any aspect or condition of these independent facilities or premises. We acknowledge that we may independently inspect and assess any of these contractors, facilities or premises, if we desire.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF RISKS

TWWI educational, instructional and/or adventure and recreation activities can occur inside or outside of Colorado and can be conducted by TWWI staff or independent contractors. These activities can include, but may not be limited to: hiking and peak ascents; backpacking; rock climbing (both outdoors on natural rock or indoors on artificial walls); camping; orienteering; swimming; cross-country or back-country skiing; snowshoeing; high or low element ropes or challenge course activities; skateboarding; indoor sky diving (after school programs only); sports; dance; interactive games or activities; volunteer community service projects and transportation in vans, buses or other vehicles to and from activities (referred to in this Document as "activities"). Activities may be scheduled or unscheduled, structured or unstructured, and include free time. We acknowledge that the inherent and other risks, hazards and dangers (collectively referred to in this Document as "risks") of these activities can cause injury, damage, death or other loss to participant or others. Parent/s give permission for their child to participate in all TWWI activities and agree to discuss the nature of these activities and risks with their child. The following describes some, but not all of those risks:

Risks present in an outdoor or wilderness environment. These risks include travel in high altitude, mountainous or wilderness terrain both on and off trail. Participants' travel may be subject to lightning; strong wind; fast moving rivers or other water bodies; difficult stream and/or snowbridge crossings; falling rocks, ice or objects; extremely hot (geothermal) or cold weather or water; snow and ice; avalanche dangers; falling or fallen timber; stinging, venomous or disease carrying animals or insects; poisonous plants; wild or domestic animals and other natural or man-made hazards. Hazards may not be marked or visible and weather is unpredictable year around.

Risks involved in decision making and conduct, including the risk that a TWWI staff member, representative, volunteer, co-participant or contractor may misjudge a participant's capabilities, health or physical condition, or misjudge some aspect of instruction, medical treatment, weather, terrain, water level, or, river and/or terrain route location.

Personal health and participation risks. The risk that participant's mental, physical or emotional condition (disclosed or undisclosed, known or unknown) combined with participation in these activities could result in injury, damage, death or other loss. Although TWWI personnel will review participant's submitted health information, TWWI cannot anticipate or eliminate risks or complications posed by participant's mental, physical or emotional condition.

Risks associated with travel. Travel can be on foot or by vehicle, skis, snowshoes, or other means and can be over rough and unpredictable terrain, highways or other roads, or via lakes and rivers, in snow, sleet, rain or other adverse weather.

Risks connected with geographic location. Activities may take place in remote places, several hours or days from medical facilities, causing potential delays or difficulties in communication, transportation, evacuation and medical care. Although TWWI staff or contractors may have wireless communication devices (including cell or SAT phones) while conducting programs, use of these communication devices in outdoor, mountainous and/or wilderness terrain is unreliable and inconsistent.

Equipment risks. The risk that equipment used in an activity may be misused or may break, fail or malfunction. TWWI requires helmets or other safety gear for some activities. Safety gear may prevent or lessen injuries in some instances; however, use of safety gear is not a guarantee of safety, and injury can occur even with the use of this gear.

Cooking and camping risks. Risks include gas explosion, scalding or other burns associated with cooking over a gas stove or open fire, and water contamination in natural water sources. Water may be contaminated and must be disinfected or boiled before use.

Volunteer community service risks. Participating in volunteer service projects can include risks associated with activities such as building, digging, lifting, painting, construction and clean-up projects. Projects may include the use of tools and equipment (i.e. drills, saws, power tools) that can cause injury resulting from use, misuse or malfunction.

Risks associated with free time. Participants may have free time before, during and after the start of a course and at various other times. Unsupervised time may include free time, or time where participant is stationary, alone and possibly overnight in the field for up to 24 hours (solos).

Risks regarding conduct. The potential that the participant, or other participants or third parties (e.g. driver, rescue squad, hospital) may act carelessly or recklessly; or that the participant may react adversely or suffer emotional trauma from her participation or for any other reason.

Other risks that are generally associated with educational, instructional and/or recreation and adventure activities.

These and other risks may result in participants: falling partway or falling to the ground, being struck; colliding with or impacting objects or people; experiencing vehicle collision or rollover; reacting to high altitudes, weather conditions or increased exertion; becoming lost or disoriented; suffering gastro-intestinal complications or allergic reactions or experiencing other problems. These and other circumstances may cause hypothermia, hyperthermia (heat related illness), heat exhaustion, dehydration, frostbite, drowning, high altitude sickness, heart or lung complications, broken bones, paralysis, mental or emotional trauma, concussions, sunburn or other burns or other injury, damage, death or loss.

We acknowledge and agree:

- To read, understand and abide by the terms of the Application, the "I Understand" form and other TWWI forms, and to obey all TWWI rules and policies;
- TWWI staff are and have been available should we have further questions about these activities or the associated risks;
- If participant has any mental, physical or emotional condition/s or limitation/s which might affect her ability to participate, we agree to disclose those to TWWI, and represent that participant is fully capable of participating in these activities without causing harm to herself or others;
- TWWI cannot assure participant's safety or eliminate any of these risks, and that during both supervised and unsupervised activities, all participants share in the responsibility for their own well-being;
- Participant is voluntarily participating with knowledge of the risks. Therefore, participant (and her parent/s) assume and accept full responsibility for participant, for the inherent and other risks (both known and unknown) of these activities and for any injury, damage, death or other loss suffered by participant (and her parent/s), resulting from those risks and/or resulting from participant's negligence or other misconduct.

RELEASE AND INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

Please read carefully. This Release and Indemnity Agreement contains a surrender of certain legal rights. Certain federal land agencies may restrict service providers from seeking releases of liability for negligence, for injuries or other losses occurring while operating under permit on some federal lands. Therefore, except to the extent a court determines these federal restrictions apply to TWWI as a matter of law, I (adult participant, and/or parent/s, for myself and for and on behalf of my participating child) agree as follows:

1) to release and agree not to sue TWWI with respect to any and all claims, liabilities, suits, or expenses (including attorney's fees and costs) (hereafter collectively "claim" or "claim/s") for any injury, damage, death or other loss in any way connected with my child's enrollment or participation in these activities, or use of any equipment, facilities or premises. I understand that in signing this Document, I, my child, and anyone acting on my or my child's behalf, surrender our respective rights to make a claim against TWWI, for any injury, damage, death or other loss suffered by me or my child;

2) to defend and indemnify ('indemnify' meaning protect by reimbursement or payment) TWWI with respect to any and all claim/s:

(a) brought by or on behalf of me or a family member for any injury, damage, death or other loss in any way connected with my child's enrollment or participation in these activities, or use of any equipment, facilities or premises; and/or,

(b) brought by a co-participant or any other person for any injury, damage, death or other loss to the extent caused by my child's conduct in the course of participating in these activities or using any equipment, facilities or premises.

This Release and Indemnity Agreement includes claim/s resulting from TWWI's negligence (but not its gross negligence or willful, wanton or criminal misconduct), and includes claim/s for personal injury or wrongful death (including claim/s related to emergency or medical response, assessment or treatment) property damage, breach or contract or any other claim.

OTHER PROVISIONS

We agree that Colorado law (without regard to its conflict of laws rules) governs this Document, any dispute we have with TWWI, and all other aspects of our relationship with TWWI, and that any mediation, suit, or other proceeding must be filed or entered into only in Boulder County, Colorado. We agree to attempt to settle any dispute (that cannot be settled by discussion) through mediation before a mutually acceptable Colorado mediator. We authorize TWWI staff, volunteers, contractors or other medical personnel to obtain or provide medical care for participant, to transport participant to a medical facility and to provide treatment they consider necessary for participant's health. Parent/s agree to pay all costs associated with medical care and transportation and further agrees to the release (to or by TWWI) of any medical records necessary for treatment, referral, billing or insurance purposes. We authorize TWWI and/or parties or entities designated by TWWI, to take the participant's or parent's photo and to use it for sale or reproduction in any manner TWWI desires, for advertising or other use. All negatives and prints are the property of TWWI. TWWI reserves the right to remove any participant from the program that staff believes, in their discretion, presents a safety concern or medical risk, is disruptive, or otherwise conducts herself in a manner detrimental to the program. If participant is dismissed or departs for any reason, participant (and her family) are responsible for any and all costs of early departure whether for medical reasons, dismissal, or otherwise. This Document is intended to be interpreted and enforced to the fullest extent allowed by law. If any portion of this Document is deemed unlawful or unenforceable, it shall not affect the enforceability of the remaining provisions and those remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

Participant and parent/s each agree: I have carefully read, understand and voluntarily sign this Document and acknowledge that it shall be effective and binding upon me, my minor children, spouse and other family members, and my heirs, executors, representatives, subrogors and estate. Participant and one or both parent/s must sign below.

We expect that you will find your Girl's Wilderness course to be an enjoyable and rewarding experience. We also want to make sure that you understand that due to the nature of the wilderness environment, your course will be a true adventure, and you will probably find challenges and struggles mixed in with the excitement of your new experiences. We want to make sure that as you consider enrolling on a course, you understand the following things:

I understand:

1. That a Women's Wilderness Institute course is a physically strenuous experience. I understand that due to the nature of a wilderness experience, there may be times when I am physically tired and/or uncomfortable.
2. That I am not permitted to bring or use alcohol or recreational drugs while on the course. I understand that use of tobacco products is strongly discouraged.
3. That violence or the threat of violence towards others or myself is not permitted, and may mean being removed from the course.
4. That due to the remote nature of the course, it is extremely difficult and disruptive to the course for someone to leave early. I understand that by participating I am making a commitment to stay for the duration of the course, except in the case of an emergency.
5. That I will be expected to practice environmental stewardship and the principles of the "Leave No Trace" ethic, which will be explained to me in detail by my instructors.
6. That I will be required to follow all safety policies while on course.

To ensure that our program activities are appropriate for your patient, we need your help in the screening process. Careful and intelligent medical screening will enhance the program for applicants and in some cases avoid serious medical problems.

Women's Wilderness Institute courses are wilderness-based programs of backpacking and wilderness living. Courses can be physically and mentally strenuous, and may involve stressful environmental conditions. Altitudes may reach above 12,000 feet. Field staff are trained as Wilderness First Responders, but hospital-based services may be up to one day or more away. While individuals with normal physical and mental capacity should be able to complete a course, there are some individuals for whom participating on a course may be a health risk.

Please provide the requested information, and review the applicant's medical history (which should be on an accompanying form) for potential issues that may need further evaluation
